

KVOA-TV is involved with an internship program that includes students from the University of Arizona. Student interns are expected to be registered for class credit during the semester for which they are participating in the internship program. The duties of student interns can vary, but includes, running the teleprompter for newscasts, writing scripts, working on the assignment desk, logging video, and helping to field produce stories with reporters and photographers.

KVOA recruits interns both through word of mouth, and by attending internship fairs at the University of Arizona. Their internship coordinator is Lisa Button. She can be reached at 520-626-5219.

The intern coordinator for KVOA is our Executive Producer, Robby Messer. He can be reached at 520-624-2477.

INTERNSHIP AGREEMENT

I, _____, agree to an internship with KVOA Communications, Inc., under the terms and conditions detailed by the Internship Coordinator, printed materials provided to me, and conditions detailed in this agreement.

I agree that I will not:

- Possess, consume, distribute or procure alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs while on station premises or while engaged in any task relating to KVOA Communications, Inc.;
- Work on the premises or while involved in any internship assignment while under the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol;
- Misuse or appropriate station resources, including but not limited to: unauthorized or personal use of telephones, long distance services, internet services, e-mail services, vehicles, office supplies and machinery, and video equipment.
- Hold myself out to be or to have been an employee of KVOA Communications, Inc. to any person or entity;
- Undertake any profitmaking enterprise which conflicts with KVOA's business or news interests;
- Behave in any way which reflects negatively on KVOA Communications or which compromises its reputation or competitive position:

Under no circumstances are interns allowed to drive a KVOA vehicle, or a vehicle rented or leased by KVOA. Interns are not allowed to use their own vehicles to conduct any business on behalf of KVOA. If an intern chooses to attend a KVOA news function, or any other event, he or she does so voluntarily and not in the pursuance of KVOA business.

I understand that KVOA Communications, Inc. may seek all available legal remedies should I violate any of the above rules or if I act otherwise in a way that harms the station.

I hereby assume any and all risks associated with this internship and expressly waive, release, discharge and hold harmless, KVOA Communications, Inc., its servants, agents, employees and assigns from and against any and all liability for loss, damage, injury, illness or claim of any nature whatsoever, however caused, arising out of, in association with, or related in any way to my participation in this internship.

On Thursday, June 10, I spoke with a group of students participating in the 30th annual Journalism Diversity Workshop for Arizona high school students at the University of Arizona. There were approximately 20 students in the program representing different regions of southern Arizona. We talked about the importance of diversity in the newsroom. There were three other journalists on the panel (all three from the AZ Daily Star). We took questions from the students regarding our education, background and general news interests. The presentation started at 8:30 and wrapped up about 10 a.m.

On Thursday, September 30th I visited with students at Little Castle Pre-School and Daycare. The older students, i.e. the 3 and 4-year-old are meeting different community leaders. I told the kids about what we do here at channel 4, keeping it as simple as possible. I spent an hour with the students answering a lot of questions and letting them tell me about themselves.

Subject: friday, may 20

On Friday, May 20 I participated in Career Day at Altar Valley Middle School in Robles Junction. I held four sessions and met with approximately 100 students. It's a 35 minute drive to the community of Three points. I arrived at 8 a.m. and left at 10:30 a.m. The student asked about what a typical day is like in a newsroom and what TV journalism entails. We discussed the importance of reading and how college can impact their future. I spoke with students between 5th and 8th grades.
